NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME 2023-2024

Report on "Khadi Mahotsav 2023" & "Meri Maati Mera Desh" on 19.10.2023

As per the communication from Ministry of youth affairs & Sports, Govt. Of India, Providence college for women, Coonoor celebrated Khadi Mahotsav on 19th October 2023. The NSS units I & II Programme officers, along with Government programme committee staff jointly organised the celebration. The college students, including NSS volunteers & staff members worn Khadi sarees for the occasion. Mrs. J. Karunambikai, Assistant professor of Economics was invited as a resource person. She gave a thought provoking talk on the history & the significance of celebrating Khadi Mahotsav. Her speech created an awareness to uplift the dying Khadi industry. Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Nehru Yuva Kendra, Organisation The Nilgiris, conducted Block level Meri Maati Mera Desh events. Various competitions were conducted for the students. The winners were honoured with certificates & prizes. Mr. Ranjith kumar, District coordinator addressed the gathering and emphasised about the need of the individual participation in Meri Maati Mera Desh program with more volunteer ship & urged the students to register online portal for the same. Both the events were well perceived by the gathering & were a great success.

Vigilance Awareness Week

Name of the event : Vigilance Awareness Week 2023

Date : 05/11/2023

Venue : MMT Hall

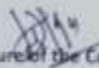

No of Student : All UG

About the event :

Vigilance Awareness Week 2023 is being observed from the 30th of October to the 5th of November 2023 with the theme, "Say no to corruption, commit to the nation". Observation of the vigilance awareness week commenced with the integrity pledge by dignitaries and college students on the 1st of November 2023 at 11 a.m.

We were advised to conduct activities relevant to the team both within and outside our campus such as outreach activities, conducting workshops, sensitization programs for students on preventive vigilance measures and also conducting various competitions such as debates and quizzes. Mr. Haldorai and Mr. Subramaniam were the observers. Mrs. Valli Ramesh from the Gandhian People Movement Mr. Manoharan of CCPA and retired educational officer Mr. Belli spoke on various topics. Prof. Praveena proposed the vote of thanks. Thus the program ended with the national anthem. All UG students from Providence College participated and benefited from the program. Coonoor Consumer Protection Association and Providence College for Women, Coonoor have agreed to collaborate on this topic and conduct various programs in this regard for three years.

Republic Day

Providence College for Women Women

(Autonomous)

(2024)

DATE :: 26:1:2024

TIME : 9:30 AM

VENUE: College Ground

Objective: To commemorate the 73rd Republic Day of India and instil a sense of patriotism and civic responsibility among Students.

Program Highlights:

Master of Ceremony (MC): The event was gracefully hosted by Nandhini Nalla, who skilfully guided the audience through the proceedings of the day with poise and eloquence.

Dr.Malarvizhi, Head Department of Language, hoisted the National flag.

Pavithra 1st Botany delivered speech focused on the significance of youth empowerment and nation-building. She stressed the role of education and innovation in driving progress and development. Pavithra I's compelling narrative and vision for the future inspired the audience to take proactive steps towards positive change.

Nagajothi of 3rd History delivered a stirring speech advocating for gender equality and women's empowerment. She highlighted the contributions of women to the nation's growth and development, calling for greater opportunities and recognition for women in all spheres of life. Pavithra's impassioned plea for gender parity struck a chord with the audience, sparking discussions on the need for societal transformation.

Sir Harini of 1st Botany concluded the event with a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the speakers, organizers, and attendees for their participation and support. She commended the insightful contributions of each speaker and reiterated the importance of unity and collaboration in nation-building. Harini's sincere appreciation set a positive tone for the conclusion of the Republic Day celebrations.

The speeches delivered on Republic Day underscored the enduring values of democracy, unity, and social justice. Each speaker offered unique perspectives and insights, inspiring the audience to reflect on their roles as responsible citizens. The event served as a reminder of the collective aspirations and shared commitment to building a better future for all.
