

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

WOMEN'S STUDIES CENTRE

"PLANET 50:50 BY 2030 : Step it Up for Gender Equality"

Newsletter 2018 - 2019

Women's Studies Centre of the Department of History, Providence College for Women's objective is meant to achieve Sustainable Development Goal of Promoting Equality & Empowerment of Women. The centre's prime focus is to achieve Gender Equality, Empowerment of women and addressing diverse needs of women, enabling policies and enabling programmes of the government. The Women studies Centre have special focus on most marginalized and disadvantaged women in the society.

The vision of the Women's Studies Centre of the department of History envisages in continuance with the mission of the college - to promote quality education and excellence that will focus on the transformation of society through its women leaders who are sensitive to societal needs, equipped with the best of education and whose horizons are ever expanding.

National Level Conference

Women's Studies Centre of the department of History organized one day National level Conference entitled "Women Empowerment & Sustainability" on 28th September 2018. The National Level Conference acted as a platform in creating awareness amongst men and women of the need, to work hand in hand towards social progress by empowering women.

National Conference on “Women Empowerment & Sustainability” on 28th Sep 2018

Paper presenters from various Colleges

Paper Presentation in the National Conference

Valedictory function of the National Conference

Women's Health Awareness

Women Studies Centre prioritized the health of the women by conducting health awareness programme to help them make healthy decisions to improve their quality of life. Being healthy is important for women of all ages. As women they often put their health on hold to tend to others, but being healthy themselves benefits them and those they love.

Health Awareness Programme to the Women students

Women and physical fitness